ORDER:

It has come to notice of Government that inspection teams have visited the Engineering Colleges in the State of Andhra Pradesh, and not submitted their factual reports on the facilities available in Engineering Colleges in the State. The AICTE has stipulated certain guidelines for sanction of intake of students in engineering colleges.

2. To develop quality education in the field of engineering and other higher educational institutions, and also ensure transparency in the approval of permissions to the Engineering Colleges in the State, it has been decided to constitute a Committee to re-examine the inspection reports submitted by the committees.

3. Accordingly, Government hereby constitute the following Committee to re-examine and submit report:-

1. Sri L. Venugopal Reddy, Chairman, APSCHE.
2. Sri Bala Subramanyam, Consultant to AFRC & Chairman, AP Environment Appraisal Authority.
3. Sri Prasad Raju, Registrar, JNTU Kakinada.

4. The committee should screen all inspection reports in scientific manner and examine eligibility of colleges. They should recommend eligible intake for each college by following the AICTE norms, and submit report to Government within 10 (ten) days.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)

SUMITA DAWRA,
SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

To
Sri L. Venugopal Reddy, Chairman, APSCHE.
Sri Bala Subramanyam, Consultant, AFRC, Hyderabad.
Sri Prasad Raju, Registrar, JNTU Kakinada.
